Excerpt: . . . to the press for aiding them to make collections of the taxes under the present revenue bill. We ask no exception on that score, but we submit, and I hope to demonstrate that our relations to industry; yes, and our relation to Government itself is such that we should not be called upon to pay an extra tax, a supertax, or, what some of our publishers have regarded as punitive damages for wrongs, real or fancied, which may have been suffered by public men at the hands of the more popular mediums of thought. SUBSIDY CHARGE RIDICULOUS The charge has been made that we, the publishers, have been enjoying a subsidy at the hands of the Government, and that we must now be made to disgorge and to pay a prohibitive postal rate in the future. To that charge we take emphatic exception. A low transportation charge on intelligence is no more of a subsidy to the publisher than a low freight rate on wheat is a subsidy to the farmer. It is no more of a subsidy to the publisher than the money spent on public highways is a subsidy to vehicle owners. If you, in your wisdom, should decide to place an extra tax upon the coal producers, would you set about it by raising the freight rate on coal Obviously the only effect would be to contract the area over which the coal could be shipped and to increase the price to...
