F5 2008c OCLC Number: (OCoLC)263072020 Subject: Kinship care -- Government policy -- United States. Excerpt: . . . 15 and associated supports and benefits, and how to enter into a relative guardianship assistance agreement (provided the State has opted to provide this kind of assistance). The Committee Bill permits exceptions to this notice requirement due to family or domestic violence. Notice to non-parent caregivers of children receiving TANF benefits: The Committee Bill also requires the State child welfare agency to give notice of these same care and placement options to any non-parent relative caretaker who, after an interaction with the child welfare agency, is providing a home for a child receiving Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) benefits. TANF penalty for failure to provide notice CURRENT LAW Under the TANF block grant (Title IV - A of the Social Security Act), States are entitled to receive an annual grant for family assistance. The amount of this grant may be reduced if HHS determines that the State has failed to comply with certain Federal requirements related to the receipt and use of the funds. A State may avoid such a penalty if it can show reasonable cause for the non-compliance, or if it enters into a corrective compliance plan with HHS. COMMITTEE BILL The Committee Bill requires HHS to reduce the amount of a States TANF grant if it determines that the State is not complying with the notice provisions for non-parent caretakers of children receiving TANF benefits. If a non-complying State cannot give reasonable cause or does not enter into a corrective compliance plan with HHS, the penalty amount must be based on the States degree...
