Excerpt: . . . liberal help thereof Would you but pay thin thanks. Den. No, Ill no thanks; Yea, though I die, I will not thank you; no; For I can hold my breath into my lip, Or twist my hair to choke my throat upon, Or thrust a weak way thus to my rent heart Even with these bare and feeble fingers here, Making each nail a knife; look you, Ill dot. Ca. You talk too wide; I came to do you good. Den. That were good news indeed; things new, being good, Come keener to put relish in the lip; I pray you let me see this good i the face, Look in its eyes to find dead colours out, For deadly matters make up good for me. Ca. Nay, you shall find my favour large as love; I make no talk of gold, no costly words,...

Reviews

This publication may be really worth a go through, and a lot better than other. It really is writter in simple terms and never difficult to understand. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
