Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Biography of Lincoln The author in writing the biography of these eminent persons, has mentioned the day of birth, providing the day of the month is given from A. D. for the dates are the most difficult part of the persons history, so we take the historical facts as true. The laws of biography, like history in general, are truths of matter and method, and clearness of expression; the first propriety is necessary to keep our understanding from the imposition of falsehood. I have not thought of giving full history of the various discussions of measures as it does not form a part of genuine biography, and can only serve to render a book tiresome to many readers. My object has been to give a clear view of the whole career of the person in an equitable form. These gifted beings may be said to have endeared our language and institutions and our national characters. It would be difficult to name all the authors from whose works the compiler of this volume has copiously extracted from. He is largely indebted to Holland, Harper, Cyclopaedia of English Literature by Robert Chambers, Appleton s, edition by Francis Hawks, also from Jean Charles Leonard de Sismondi, the celebrated Swiss historian. The articles are drawn from authors and historians of the first rank, and the most authentic source. Nearly all of these biographies, the reader will find profitable for study, while their perusal will be interesting and instructive to all. He grounds his hope of the public, taking an interest in this work upon its own intrinsic utility. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of...
