Au Japon: The Memoirs of a Foreign Correspondent in Japan, Korea, and China, 1892-1894

By Amde Baillot De Guerville

Parlor Press. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. Hardcover. 228 pages. Dimensions: 9.1in. x 6.1in. x 0.8in. What they were saying in 1904 . . . Monsieur de Guerville is a passionate, and perhaps overly partial, friend of Japan. What he describes for us in AU JAPON is what he himself witnessed-the festivals, the dinners, and the prominent and picturesque customs of the common people . . . Here is not a single figure, not a statistic, but vivid sketches that cut to the quick, and which, without sacrificing accuracy, offer up all the delights of a charming novel. - Lllustration (1904) In AU JAPON A. B. de Guerville recounts some of his experiences in this country and sets forth his opinions about what he saw and heard. . . . The style is thoroughly French; that is to say, light, clear and graceful, and the matter is always interesting. What strikes us especially is that the author takes such trouble to contradict the gross exaggerations published in 1895 about the Port Arthur affair. Mr. de Guerville was among the newspaper correspondents who entered the place immediately after the fight and he is therefore in a position to speak positively. His verdict is...
