When a State has a single contract brand, doctors or hospitals may tend to promote that brand either through recommendations or the provision of formula samples. Such promotions may lead to a brand-inducement behavior by which the (representative) non-WIC household favors the contract brand when making its out-of-pocket formula purchase. The model does not require that all out-of-pocket households must behave this way, but if some proportion of them do then u will be positive for the representative 10 10 Whether a manufacturer is the household. contract or a noncontract brand in a given area, the manufacturer has an A second, distinct effect occurs if (at least some) non-WIC households favor incentive to promote its brand in the the brand that has a greater presence on the supermarket shelf. Given that a medical community so that doctors sole-source contract is in effect, and that WIC formula is...
