These expressions have taken the form of letters, telegrams and personal visits from friends in the trade---both wholesale and retail. These messages--so many as to be almost over sorrow at his death, taking such comfort as they may in the knowledge that his life was clean and pure and that he has left behind him an enviable reputation, which will serve as an inspiration to all who knew him. To those who were in daily contact with him in his office the directors extend their heartfelt sympathy. Of his widow, they ask that she take such comfort as she may be able to glean from the knowledge that those who were intimately acquainted with her husband. many of them for a lifetime, held him in high regard and profoundly sympathize with her in her sad loss. MARCUS M. Mmzxs, President, Clothiers Association of New York. VVM. R. Conwmlz, Secretary. Dated, New York City, 25th of October, 1911.
